

Nomenclature – naming
 Nocturnal – of the night
 Diurnal – day
 Altitude – height
 Century, centenary
 Reign – rule
 Vocal –
 Veracity – speaks truth
 Mendacity – lies
 Plethora – plenty
 Pyre – funeral, pyromaniac

Mania – attraction
 Phobia – fear, hatred
 Aqua, hydro –
 Finish, final – end
 Science –

Solar – sun
 Sonic, ultrasonic, sonorous, sonar
 Migrate – migrant, immigration, emigration.....im ---entry... emi- exit

Psyche –mind ,,,psychic

Audio – sound , hear,

Metropolis, cinepolis

Necro – dead

Mortal , immortal , mortuary / morgue

Lauded – praised, plaudits – applause

Policy – rules

Jury - , jurisdiction, jurisprudence , judiciary, adjourn – dismiss a case

Capital punishment –

Cognition – know , recognize, cognitive

Bio – lifebiotic , abiotic

Lumen , luminous

Corpse – dead body

Diction,

Cide – kill

Bene – good

Mal – bad

Monolith – single rock

Lithe – graceful and fast

Lunatic – mad, unsound mind , lunacy

Lunar – moon , luna stone – moon stone

Quasi – semi

Sympathy , empathy , apathy

Culp - fault, culpable , culprit

Whim , eccentricities

Hedonism , materialism

Panglossian – very optimistic

Joined ---- intro ...reading , vocabulary

1 month ----reading , vocabulary , fib, style tone , ..va book - solving

2 month+-----va book 1 antonym, synonym , odd man out , fill in the blanks , reading , vocabulary , starters pack – 45 day module

100 IMPORTANT VOCABULARY WORDS WITH SYONYMS AND ANTONYMS

FOR CAT SNAP, IIFT, XAT, NMAT

A thorough revision of these 100 vocabulary words for MBA Exams will speed your final preparation for MBA Entrance exams.

1. Factotum

Pronunciation: fak-toh-tuh m

Meaning: An employee or official who has various different responsibilities to handle

Synonyms: Retainer, Servant, workaholic, odd-job person, multi tasker

Usage: She might appear as the perfect factotum; and indeed she was.

2. Nostrum

Pronunciation: nos-truh m

Meaning: Patent medicine whose efficacy is questionable.

Synonyms: catholicon, elixir, medicine, remedy, treatment, cure, drug, placebo , panacea

Usage: Riyah gave her sister a nostrum to allay her allergy towards the pollen grains

3. Brook

Pronunciation: broo k

Meaning: A natural stream of water smaller than a river

Synonyms: beck, creek, streamlet, branch, river, watercourse, spring

Usage: This brook dried up every year in the summer

4. Liturgy

Pronunciation: lit-er-jee

Meaning: A form of public worship; ritual.

Synonyms: observance, rite, sacrament, celebration, ceremonial

Usage: People's faith is being choked out by the thorns of fabricated liturgy (Source: Church Militant)

5. Larceny

Pronunciation: lahr-suh-nee

Meaning: The act of taking something from someone unlawfully

Synonyms: burglary, Crime, stealing, touch, stealing, pilfering

Antonyms: return, pay, reimbursement, compensation

Usage: The larceny is appalling at Kennedy International

6. Quixotic

Pronunciation: kwik-sot-ik

Meaning: Not sensible about practical matters; idealistic and unrealistic

Synonyms: dreamy, foolish, impractical, impulsive, unrealistic

Antonyms: hardheaded, hard-nosed, tough-minded, unsentimental; practical, pragmatic

Usage: Our quixotic prime minister may need Labour to save him in Europe. (Source: The Guardian-20-Feb-2016)

7. Quash

Pronunciation: kwosh

Meaning: to put down or suppress completely; quell; subdue

Synonyms: crush, pull down, quell, repress, beat, overcome

Antonyms: abet, aid, assist, back, help, prop up, support; foment, incite

Usage: The Punjab and Haryana High Court today refused to quash an FIR registered against two youngsters in a criminal intimidation case. (Source: Chandigarh Tribune)

8. Skulduggery

skuhl-duhg-uh-ree

Meaning: an instance of dishonest or deceitful behavior; trick.

Synonyms: crafty; trickery; chicanery; duplicity; guile; perfidy; falsehood, hypocrite

Antonyms: truthfulness; loyalty; trustworthiness; truthfulness; honesty

Usage: The tax is high on years of expediency and governmental skulduggery in arming and feeding and giving harbour to such factions (Source: Firstpost)

9. Ludicrous

Pronunciation: loo-di-kruh s

Meaning: Broadly or extravagantly humorous; resembling farce

Synonyms: foolish, comical, outlandish, silly, laughable, crazy, funny

Antonyms: grave, tragic, sensible, logical, reasonable

Usage: Meet the epically ludicrous instrument that uses 2,000 steel marbles to make music. (source: Classic FM)

10. Lachrymose

Pronunciation: lak-ruh-mohs

Meaning: Showing sorrow;

Synonyms: sad, teary, weeping, weepy, melancholy, blue, dejected, gloomy

Antonyms: beaming, chuckling, giggling, grinning, laughing, smiling

Usage: While presidents, being also human, may be allowed some display of emotion, they cannot be lachrymose all the time. (Source: Philippine Star)

11. Admonish

Pronunciation: ad-mon-ish

Meaning: Warn strongly; put on guard, to caution, advise, or counsel against something.

Synonyms: berate, censure, chide, rebuke, reprimand, scold, warn,

Antonyms: approve, endorse, sanction; applaud, extol, hail, laud, praise, salute, tout

Usage: The two acts of mercy being focused on this March in the Archdiocese of Portland will be to forgive offenses and to admonish sinners. (Source: Catholic Sentinel-15-Mar-2016)

12. Tirade

Pronunciation: tahy-reyd or tahy-reyd

Meaning: A speech of violent denunciation

Synonyms: harangue, ranting, screed, sermon, anger, censure, dispute

Antonyms: peace, harmony, agreement, calm, praise, accord, unperturbed

Usage: Australian movie star Rebel Wilson has launched a vitriolic Twitter tirade at a journalist who allegedly “harassed” her sick grandmother. (Source: The New Daily-28-Feb-2016)

MINDWORKS